May Be Called Report Short House Session Opens March 19

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—Parliament will be called together for a short session beginning March 19. The Canadian Press learned reliably today. Prime Minister Mackenzie King is expected to make this announcement in a broadcast tonight.

The House of Commons thus would have two full weeks in March and, if necessary, another two weeks in April before the life of parliament expires April 17. However, Mr. King would be able to end the session by dissolution of parliament at any time before expiration.

While it is expected the session will be devoted almost exclusively to voting supply to carry on the war and meet civil expenditures, efforts likely will be made to open up a debate on foreign policy.

WANTS STATEMENT

M. J. Caldwell, CCF leader, has expressed the view Mr. King should make a statement as head of the external affairs department.

Two security conventions are scheduled, one at an unsated date in London for Commonwealth countries, and the second

Alberta May Build Emergency Strips

The department of public works is considering plans to "spot" emergency landing strips through Northern Alberta, particularly along well-travelled or planned air routes, it was announced Friday by Hon. W. A. Fallow, acting premier and minister of public works.

The emergency strips would be built adjacent to existing or planned roads, construction to be carried out in conjunction with road-building or improvement projects.

Mr. Fallow said airline officials have been asked to designate areas where emergency strips should be laid out. When these locations have been supplied, the plan will be examined in the light of proposed road construction.

It would be an easy matter to build landing strips adjacent to roads. Equipment could be moved into the land as the road was being built or repaired, and with little effort the landing field could be levelled and grassed.

He emphasized that the plan would be extended in application, and the air strips would only be built as roads open up new territory. He suggested they would be invaluable in the post-war years.

Superforts Again Blast Singapore

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(BUP)—B-29 Superfortresses bombed war factories and the great naval base at Singapore, crossroads of the Japanese empire, today.

A Tokyo broadcast said 54 B-29s took part in the raid and admitted that some damage was caused to Singapore's installations.

Designation of the naval base as among the prime targets indicated that the Superfortresses may have been searching for units of Japan's elusive fleet. In a raid Feb. 1, the B-29s sank a naval dock, largest of its kind in the world.

27 Dead in Blast

PRETORIA, South Africa, March 2.—(CP)—At least 27 persons were killed and 105 injured yesterday in an explosion at an ammunition loading field near here. Some of the 440 workers were warned by a preliminary blast and reached safety. It was South Africa's first big munitions disaster of the war.

Drive to Railroad

Reds Reach Last Nazi Pomerania Escape Gap

By ROBERT MUSEL
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

LONDON, March 2.—(BUP)—The German high command said today that the Red Army had plunged a spearhead through Pomerania to the Danzig-Stettin coastal railroad, the last land line of escape for an estimated 200,000 German troops.

A Nazi communique reported that Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's army cut the road between Koessin and Schwab. That 26-mile stretch of the trunk line runs along the Baltic seven to 12 miles from the coast.

The drive cut off a. the German troops in northeastern Pomerania, the northern end of the old Polish

W. M. Neal Says: CPR Will Use Larger Volume Alberta Coal

Alberta and Eastern British Columbia coal will be used progressively in the company's operations in North-Western Ontario and Manitoba in a resumption of the CPR's policy which was interrupted by the economic necessities of the war. W. M. Neal, CBE, Montreal, vice-president Canadian Pacific Railway, stated on his arrival here Friday in the course of an inspection tour of Western Canada.

During his one-day visit here Mr. Neal will confer with executives of the CPR and NAR and Canadian Pacific Air Lines. He will inspect terminal and other facilities and will make a number of social calls.

Commenting on the resumption of the policy of using Alberta and Eastern British Columbia coal in the company's operations Mr. Neal said that this year increasing quantities will be shipped from the west into Manitoba and North-Western Ontario with the radius of shipment being extended as far as the shipments are economically possible.

TO RESTORE SERVICES

He revealed that the CPR is planning to spend millions of dollars to improve and restore land and ocean services in the post-war period. He stressed the need for strong Canadian transportation systems within the Dominion and also to foreign countries to maintain Canada's wealthy export trade.

Mr. Neal said that no extensions are contemplated at present.

Farmer Is Killed As Horses Bolt

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

ATHABASCA, March 2.—Gordon E. Shove, 47 years old, was killed Thursday when his team of horses bolted, dragging him around the barnyard at his farm near here. Mr. Shove was preparing the team for a trip to market when the horses became restless and bolted. He was apparently killed when one sleigh runner lodged in his body. His wife witnessed the accident. Two children also survive.

Hepburn Mistaken In Attacking King

TORONTO, March 2.—(CP)—Mitchell F. Hepburn, Ontario Liberal house leader, said yesterday he "probably made a mistake in attacking Prime Minister Mackenzie King in a personal way."

The one-time outspoken critic of Mr. King said in a Progress club address that only in the Liberal party and in the application of Liberal rather than reactionary principles was there hope for unity in Canada.

"You cannot make the French-Canadians imperialists—not just yet—it will require a great period of time and education and in the meantime all other sections of Canadian populations must be patient," Mr. Hepburn continued.

"Let us not bring French-Canadian veterans back from the battlefields to find themselves involved in a controversial political battle," he said.

Plans Completed For Registration

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—Plans now are complete for family allowance registration about March 15 when application forms will be distributed to all householders in Canada. Health Minister Clineau announced yesterday. A return envelope and instruction sheet would be sent with the registration forms and parents would be asked to fill in the forms and mail them back.

Open Sea Route Yanks Capture Lubang Island In Philippines

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

MANILA, March 2.—(BUP)—American troops, in their second amphibious landing on the western Philippines in 24 hours, have seized Lubang Island commanding the southwestern passage to Manila Bay, it was disclosed today.

Troops of an infantry division landed on Lubang, 40 miles southwest of Manila Bay, Thursday and quickly mopped up scattered Japanese resistance on the island.

The swift capture of the island clinched the American hold on the western exit of Verde passage, the main navigational route for supplies and reinforcements coming from the United States to Luzon.

Announce Names Freed Internees

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—The wartime information board today issued a list of 138 Canadians reported to be in the Philippines before the recent United States invasion.

The list included the names of eight reported by the external affairs department Feb. 24 as being among the prisoners released by American troops from Santo Tomas internment camp near Manila.

The WLB said information on addresses, both for interned and non-interned Canadians was "so old as to be completely unreliable."

The list of Albertans with next-of-kin included:

Morris, Garnet Greene and two children, formerly of Edmonton, formerly of 320 23rd Ave. E., Calgary.

Luyendyk, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard and four children, John Luyendyk, (brother) sub-post office 13, Calgary.

CCF Members Criticize Party's Official Policy

WINNIPEG, March 2.—(CP)—Two CCF members of the Manitoba legislature—Dr. D. L. Johnson of Brandon and B. R. Richards of The Pas—surprised the house yesterday when they presented a prepared statement criticizing the official party policy of the CCF.

Mr. Richards read the statement which was signed by Dr. Johnson.

It criticized the CCF policy calling for a candidate in every constituency in the forthcoming federal election, and said the CCF policy of "no coalition" with other parties should be reconsidered.

NO DEFINITE STAND

It added the party had failed to take a definite stand on close cooperation among the United Nations.

"There is evidence that many leaders of the CCF are cynical about the entire United Nations," it stated.

Provost Corps May Query Civilians

Canadian Army Provost personnel stationed in Edmonton and district are empowered to stop and hold for questioning any civilians they suspect of being absentees or deserters from the armed forces it was stated here Friday.

At the same time no Provost personnel have as yet been appointed special constables under the RCMP Act as was reported from Regina.

The Regina dispatch stated that appointments were made to "give provost police wider powers in their work of apprehending absentees and deserters."

Work of the provost police in Northern Alberta has been closely integrated with the RCMP for some time now, it was stated.

"We have had certain personnel directly attached to the RCMP who patrol with them for the purpose of apprehending absentees and deserters," an Edmonton Provost Company spokesman said.

Direct Support Huge Bomber Fleets Aid Allied, Red Armies

LONDON, March 2.—(BUP)—Royal Air Force bombers attacked Cologne this afternoon for the second time today.

By LEO S. DISHER
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

LONDON, March 2.—(BUP)—More than 2,200 RAF, Canadian and American heavy bombers swarmed into the battle of Germany today.

Massive fleets of Lancasters, Halifaxes, Flying Fortresses and Liberators threaded the skies all across Germany. They spearheaded the Allied planes giving direct support to the Allied armies fighting into the Reich from the west and east.

A thousand or more RAF and RCAF bombers cascaded thousands of tons of explosives into shell-scarred Cologne. They struck directly ahead of the American troops slightly ahead of the Rhineland's Citadel defenses.

Multiple striking forces of American bombers swept across Germany to blast and burn targets lying ahead of the Red Army. The Russian command, now revealed to be in daily contact with the Allied commanders in the west, appeared to be ready to light the fuse of a new offensive designed to overrun Berlin.

Never before had any such gigantic force of heavy bombers struck in such a dovetailing of the eastern and western front tactical operations.

Argument of Mayor John W. Fry that "the situation might have been different" in placing city fire insurance contracts if the province had seen fit to pay $100,000 in interest arrears on city-owned government bonds "is not very sound," Hon. A. J. Hooke, provincial secretary, declared in the Legislature Thursday.

He said the government insurance office, directly or indirectly, had saved for the people a total of $1,800,000 in insurance premiums.

RUINED NAZI VILLAGE—This is what Canadian artillery, tanks and infantry did to one village standing in the way of their advance on the industrial Ruhr valley. A Canadian Army cameraman was there just as a smoke screen was laid down to cover the advance. The Nazis are on the other side of the town.

Large Saving Manitoba Loan Interest Rate Is Sharply Cut

WINNIPEG, March 2.—(CP)—Premier Stuart S. Garson, as provincial treasurer, yesterday announced in the Legislature that Manitoba has negotiated renewal for one year of $5,299,076 in treasury bills at a lower rate of interest.

The rate has been reduced from 2½ to 1½ per cent, a saving to the province of $65,238 per annum. The bills, held by eight chartered banks, matured Feb. 22.

ORIGINATED IN 1932

The loan, represented by the treasury bills, originated in 1932 when the banks assumed the province's liability to depositors of the provincial savings office, now defunct. The original interest rate was 5½ per cent, and it has been progressively reduced since 1934. Repayment of the loan was guaranteed by the Dominion.

"The reductions in interest rates are tangible proofs of the value of Manitoba's sound financial policy," Mr. Garson told the house.

He paid tribute to the co-operation of the banks and the Dominion government in negotiations leading to renewal of the bills.

The principal of the loan—originally $12,442,409—has been reduced by $7,143,321.

Fifth Army Raids German Positions In Bologna Area

ROME, March 2.—(BUP)—Fifth Army units successfully raided German positions in the sector south-east of Bologna, headquarters said today, while action on the remainder of the Italian front was confined to normal patrolling.

In the east coastal sector, Eighth Army troops repulsed several German attempts to probe their positions.

Heavy bombers of the 15th U.S. Air Force dropped almost 900 tons of bombs on the Mussierbaum oil refinery in Austria and hit rail targets in Austria and Yugoslavia.

It Says Here by Bob Hope

HOLLYWOOD, March 2.—I think the Japs have finally decided that they have been spending too much time saving face because every time they get busy saving face, Nimtz sneaks up and boots them in the pants. The B-29s were doing all right. They had Tokyo lit up so that it looked like a giant pinball machine from the sky. And then Nimtz came along and tilted it. But at least, it solved one of Hitler's biggest problems. He doesn't have to worry any more about a job after the war. He can go right back to his old trade as a wall-finisher. . . . and use the plastering we gave Tokyo. The Navy really celebrated over Tokyo. In two days they turned the "Paper City" into 20 square miles of confetti. It was the largest concentration of naval aircraft in history. In fact, there were so many planes over Tokyo at one time the Land of the Rising Sun looked like it had five o'clock shadow. Yes sir, they really accentuated the bombights on both sides of Tokyo. And when they got through, don't think there wasn't a mess, Mister, in between.

Bracken Claims Tories Only Party Able Get Elected

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, said today that it was evident that his party is the only one that will be able to have a majority elected to the next parliament.

He made the statement at the opening session of the annual meeting of the Dominion Progressive Conservative Association. All business sessions of the three-day meeting which opened yesterday are in camera, with party public relations officers giving newspapermen a brief report following the conclusion of each session.

ATTACKS KING, CCF

Mr. Bracken said that Prime Minister Mackenzie King was continuing "to fiddle around in a jam of his own making." It was quite evident that the CCF had lost the confidence of the people and it "must be evident to Mr. King that the handwriting is on the wall as far as he is concerned."

Dick Bell, national director, said in presenting his report that the Progressive Conservative party was the only party with a united front and an integrated policy to present to the people.

Mr. Bell said that the Progressive Conservative party has already 221 candidates for the forthcoming general federal election. Forty-five per cent of the candidates were servicemen of this or the First Great War.

PROVINCIAL FIGURES

In Prince Edward Island four had been nominated; in Nova Scotia 10; in New Brunswick one; in Quebec four; in Ontario 62; in Manitoba nine; in Saskatchewan 12; in Alberta 13; in British Columbia one and in the Yukon one.

Most of the candidates were farmers, business executives and merchants and lawyers.

Election of officers was scheduled to take place later in the day after the delegates had heard an address by Garfield Case, who as a Progressive Conservative candidate defeated Defence Minister McNaughton in the Grey North by-election last month.

Attempts to Cash Bond Stolen Here

VANCOUVER, March 2.—(CP)—Arrested while allegedly attempting to cash a stolen bond at a city bank yesterday, Clifford J. Lapierre, 33-year-old truck driver of Vancouver, was charged with receiving stolen property. Police said the bond valued at $100 was reported stolen at Edmonton last Aug. 2. Lapierre was released on bail of $1,000.

City police, commenting on the case expressed the belief that the bond concerned might be one of a number taken from the premises of the Western Junk Company, 102 avenue and 97 street, last fall.

Yank Colonel Ruthlessly Slain

NEAR TRIER, March 2.—(Reuters)—A few American soldiers recently watched their wounded commander—the still unnamed lieutenant-colonel of the 10th armored division—ruthlessly sprayed with Tommy-gun bullets by several Nazi soldiers standing over his prostrate body.

And now, burning with anger, these men closing in on Trier, are passing along the line the story of how this colonel died.

He had been wounded in both legs by a hand grenade during an attack on German pillboxes and gun positions on Verman Hill south of Trier. He insisted that he be carried forward in the final charge.

This charge cleared the objective and the colonel was lowered onto a stretcher to await first aid treatment.

The Germans counter-attacked and over-ran the American position.

Then the Germans noticed the wounded colonel. A second later they had murdered him.

Society Formed For Servicemen Facing Eviction

MONTREAL, March 2.—(CP)—The Society of Servicemen's Families Facing Eviction has been formed here, with the wives of 30 members of the armed forces the first to join.

The 30 women all said that they faced a homeless future due to eviction notices which have been served on them with most of the notices becoming effective May 1. They have sent telegrams to federal and civil authorities urging that 300 to 500 temporary dwellings be vacated near Montreal.

Chinese Drive Near

Railhead at Lashio

KANDY, Ceylon, March 2.—(CP)—Chinese 1st Army troops, pursuing the Japanese southward along the old Burma Road, have driven to within 15 miles of the railhead at Lashio, 130 miles northeast of Mandalay, front dispatches said yesterday.

British 14th Army troops along on Mandalay pushed south and east in the Singu bridgehead area, capturing five villages.

U.S. Casualties

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—Army and Navy casualties since the United States entered the war have mounted to 815,932. War Secretary Simpson reported yesterday that Army losses now total 722,880, while the Navy placed its casualties at 90,237.

Report Short House Session Opens March 19

April 25 in San Francisco for all United Nations. The commons doubtless will press to know what stand Canada proposes to take in each.

The big debate, nevertheless, will centre on war appropriations. It is expected the government will ask for a quarter or more of these appropriations to be passed to provide the ministry with funds to carry on until a new parliament is elected, possibly in June or July.

MAY DISCUSS ELECTION

The government's decision to hold a session does not clarify the situation regarding the date of a general election, but it is expected that Mr. King will discuss this point in his broadcast. It is known the election will be held soon, but at a date which will not conflict with the San Francisco conference and the spring Victory Loan.

A portion of the estimates for civil administration also will have to be passed, but it is expected these estimates will be along the lines of the last session and will not engender as much debate as the war appropriations.

Defence Minister McNaughton will not be able to attend due to failure to win a seat in the Grey North by-election last month. Thus the load of carrying the government business through the house will fall on Finance Minister Isley, Navy Minister Macdonald and Revenue Minister Gibson, also acting as minister.

Member of Trio Held at Coast Wanted in City

VANCOUVER, March 2.—(CP)—Two bottles of acid which detectives allegedly observed being carried from a chemical firm in downtown Vancouver yesterday brought arrest for three men charged with possessing explosives. Under arrest were: Bert A. Harrington, 25; William A. Munroe, 38; and Irving V. Moore, 28, all of Vancouver. Police said that Harrington also is wanted by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, British Columbia Police, and Edmonton authorities.

Harrington, object of a search by city police concerning the breaking, entering and theft from the Bert Knowles' jewelry store here, last September, will be brought to Edmonton to answer to such charge. Chief Constable Reg Jennings announced Friday, Harrington, who will be dealt with at the coast city trial, allegedly took with him a quantity of jewelry obtained in the raid made here.

Army Commanders Confer in Holland

21st ARMY GROUP HEADQUARTERS, March 2.—(Reuters)—British, American and Canadian army commanders met in Holland yesterday and were announced to have reached decisions of the highest importance to the battle of the Rhine—and the destruction of every German west of the river.

Officers present were: Gen. Eisenhower, Allied supreme commander; Field Marshal Montgomery, 21st Army Group commander; Lt. Gen. Bradley, 12th Army Group commander; Gen. Crerar, 1st Canadian Army commander; Lt. Gen. Simpson, U.S. 9th Army commander; Lt. Gen. Dempsey, British 2nd Army commander.

During his visit the supreme commander invested British and Dominion officers with American decorations. Gen. Crerar, Gen. Dempsey and Sir Francis Wade De Guingand, Field Marshal Montgomery's chief of staff, were decorated with the Legion of Merit (degree of commander).

The meeting was the most important since D-Day.

For Enthusiasm in Attack 22 Tarawa Captives of Japanese Bayoneted, Beheaded and Burned

The following story, written at the time of the battle of Tarawa, is now released by U.S. navy censorship.—EDITOR.

WITH THE U.S. MARINES ON TARAWA—(Delayed by Censor)—(AP)—Two black-bearded French priests, freed from Japanese domination for the first time in two years, today asserted that the Japanese had bayoneted, beheaded and burned 22 Englishmen, New Zealanders and Australians at Tarawa because they showed enthusiasm during an attack on the island by U.S. warships.

Rev. Henry Jolivet and Rev. Lucien Grandgeorge told this story.

When American warships bombarded Tarawa (probably in February, 1944) an English doctor tried to escape by swimming to one of the American ships. He was recaptured by the Japanese, who then slit his calves from his knees to his ankles.

The Japanese also were annoyed by the enthusiasm their prisoners showed for the American attack. They later took 22 men, tied them to trees and bayoneted them. They then cut off their heads and burned the bodies.

bombardment of the city, and the last rail bridge was not functioning.

NEARING JUNCTION

Crerar's troops racing southward were last reported barely ten miles from a junction with the right wing of the Ninth Army and the German Transoceanic News Agency broadcast that the British 2nd Army under Lt. Gen. Sir Miles Dempsey had suddenly lashed out in the Venlo area.

Field dispatches said that Crerar's United Kingdom spearheads smashed through Weeze and were well beyond it. Another bitterly defended stronghold, Kervenheim, previously fell to Canadian troops who were breaking down fierce German rear-guard resistance in the Hochwald-Tuschenwald gap.

ROUTE IN SOME AREAS

Ninth Army forces at the Rhine were storming Neuss, across from Dusseldorf, and by late afternoon had taken a majority of the town controlling the western end of three bridges believed to be intact.

A Ninth Army headquarters spokesman reported "rapid progress against light German resistance in some sectors could easily be called 'rout'."

Lt. Gen. Simpson's headquarters announced that his tanks and infantry rolled up substantial gains today in the pocket sweep toward the Rhine. Behind them big guns lashed a shattering barrage on vital industrial targets beyond the Rhine.

BATTER COLOGNE

About 1,000 RAF and American heavy bombers poured some 5,000 tons of bombs into Cologne. They levelled great patches of the Rhine industrial capital as American First Army troops fought to capture the city.

British United Press correspondent Clinton B. Conger accompanied a unit of the Ninth Army in the drive to the Rhine. From a battalion command post on the bank of the river this afternoon he watched the developing gun battle across the Rhine.

Lt. Gen. Simpson's troops boiled out on the Rhine just south of Neuss, directly across the river from Dusseldorf. There the vanguard dug in and opened fire on Dusseldorf.

TIMED SALVOES

Massed artillery was laying timed salvos on southern Dusseldorf. The gas works and neighboring freight yard there lay under a curtain of smoke.

Already the Ninth Army troops were in position to put covering fire across the foot of the highway bridge across the Rhine into Dusseldorf. From Conger's command post a stone highway bridge and the tops of two steel rail bridges were visible. All appeared to be intact.

The capture of Trier, city of 76,000, birthplace of Karl Marx and once overrun by Caesar's legions, was less spectacular. The defenders did their fighting on the outskirts, collapsed after Patton's troops broke into the town, and surrendered several hundred strong.

2nd ARMY ATTACKS

German reports indicated the British Second Army had joined in the Rhine offensive, attacking around the northern flank of the Ninth Army in the Venlo sector.

Two of Montgomery's armies now were on the Rhine, with Gen. H. D. G. Crerar's First Canadian, fighting down the west bank from the area of Calcar and Lt. Gen. William Simpson's Ninth fanning out along the historic river barrier after a seven-day thrust through one of the toughest belts of Germany's western defenses.

Thousands of RAF, Canadian and Allied warplanes drummed overhead to take the retreating Germans, led by a fleet of more than 1,000 RAF heavy bombers that struck at Cologne.

FLEE ACROSS RHINE

Field dispatches from Montgomery's headquarters said the shattered remnants of the German 15th Army were fleeing back across the Rhine by ferry, barge and shells, with Ninth Army tanks and infantrymen pounding in at their heels.

Vanguards already were battling through the streets of the Rhine crossing city of Neuss, 1 1/2 miles west of Dusseldorf.

First accounts indicated other elements by-passed Neuss to the south and broke through to the bank in an apparent bid to capture the big bridges linking Neuss to Dusseldorf.

There was no immediate indication whether the retreating Germans had had time to blow up the Dusseldorf spans.

At least nine divisions were on the move for the Rhine on the Ninth Army front at a pace that main defence system" north of Arnswalde in the sector some 40 miles southeast of Stettin.

MAJOR ATTACK

Nazi broadcasts said Marshal Ivan S. Konev's army opened a major attack in the area of Schweidnitz, Silesian rail and road hub 31 miles southwest of beleaguered Breslau.

Moscow dispatches said great columns of Russian guns, tractors, tankborne infantry and jeeps were streaming westward across German soil for the "next phase of the offensive"—probably the frontal assault on Berlin.

Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's flanks were shielded by the campaigns in Silesia and Pomerania. His First White Russian Army passed along the Oder before Berlin appeared ready for action.

JURIST DIES

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—Mr. Justice Oswald Smith Crockett, one of the Dominion's outstanding jurists and former Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, died here today. He was 76.

Juveniles in the city found a new way to bother city police and annoy residents around 101 street and 96 avenue, Thursday, by removing a man-hole cover, according to officers. The top was replaced before anyone had been injured.

Dominion Now Has Complete Company Of Chinese Troops

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—The Canadian Army now has a full company of Canadian-born Chinese soldiers in training.

They were presented with a $100 cheque for comforts when they passed through here.

Sgt. Roy Mah of Vancouver said that while English is their main language, most of them could speak up to 10 Chinese dialects.

"Naturally we'd like a crack at the Japs but we enlisted to fight anywhere," he said.

Lt. Cpl. Victor Louis of Victoria led a band of guerrilla fighters in the vicinity of Canton, China, in 1937 and 1938. He got separated from his wife and when he got back to Canada learned that she had been captured near Hong Kong.

Princess Margaret of England has been wearing her big sister's hand-me-downs since the war began.

Hooke Replies To Mayor Fry On Insurance

the city and of the country as a whole," the provincial secretary went on.

In regard to the mayor's statement that other insurance companies pay taxes to the city, Mr. Hooke said "to the best of my knowledge, they are companies with headquarters outside of the province, and they don't pay any taxes directly."

"However, their agents do pay taxes; but these agents also pay taxes."

If Alberta had paid full interest rates to the city of Edmonton, she would also be forced to pay full interest rates to every other holder of provincial bonds, the minister pointed out.

MEAN EXTRA TAX

"That would mean $22,500,000 arrears of interest would be an additional tax on the citizens of Alberta. On a per capita basis, Edmonton alone would be assessed $2,977.941 to pay the city $190,000 in back interest."

In his statement replying to Mr. Hooke's charge that the city dropped $13,000 in insurance savings, Mayor Fry pointed out that Edmonton did not collect taxes on provincial government property within the city.

"The principle of one government taxing another is not sound," Mr. Hooke declared Thursday.

"The question has been raised that we as a government are carrying on enterprises in the city, and are not paying taxes on our buildings." The Liquor Control Board offices on 103 street and treasury branch buildings were mentioned by Mr. Hooke as examples.

"If it was a sound principle for governments to tax one another, where would the City of Edmonton come out?" he asked.

"All the city-owned utilities would be subject to the Corporation Tax Act and the Corporations Additional Tax Act, and city-owned land would be subject to the social services tax."

LICENSE CITY TRUCKS

"The province would have a perfect right to levy full license rates on all city-owned trucks and automobiles. It would be fair to levy the full 7-cent gas tax on all these cars and trucks."

If the corporations taxes and the social services tax were imposed, the result would be large payments by Edmonton, Mr. Hooke said.

He pointed out the city now pays $1 each for licenses for 105 trucks and 33 autos owned by the city. If the principle of government-tax-government were applied, the city would have to pay $10,000 in license revenues alone.

In the last 13 months, Edmonton was refunded $8,219.64 on account of gasoline taxes, which would be a direct levy otherwise. These two items would make taxes amounting to more than $18,000.

"I doubt very much if the people want to see one government levy taxes against another," Mr. Hooke commented.

TAXATION BENEFITS

The provincial secretary also pointed out that the Edmonton Co-Op Building Association had financed building 49 new houses in Edmonton. Some $30,000 of the association's funds had been advanced by the government insurance office, and the city would get taxation benefit from these homes.

Program of the province's fire insurance branch had gone forward in the last year, the minister said. He announced fire insurance business had increased by $13,190,000 over 1943 business, while life insurance in force in 1943 was $890,000.

"At the present rate, it will not be long before $2,000,000 has been written by the life insurance branch. So far, there has been only one death claim," Mr. Hooke stated.

The provincial secretary also reported 91,500 motor vehicle license plates had been issued in 1944, compared to 92,738 issued in 1943.

REVIEWS REFUNDS

Reviewing motor license refunds, he recalled legislation had been passed last year to make the amount of refund vary directly as the unexpired portion of the license plate. To date this year 1,040 vehicle operators had applied for rebates valued at $4,873. Under the last year's old rebate system, 2,200 owners had applied for rebates of $7,754.

Spirited Exchange

Hooke Bombards CCF'ers In First Session Clash

First spirited clash of the session between government and opposition members of the Legislature occurred Thursday afternoon when Hon. A. J. Hooke, provincial secretary, and Elmer E. Roper (CCF-Edmonton) traded verbal blows across the assembly chamber.

Mr. Hooke, speaking in the throne speech debate, capped his address with a barrage of criticism against the CCF.

The minister quoted passages from "Social Planning for Canada," "Make This Your Canada" and CCF campaign literature and told the assembly the CCF platform contained confusing statements. "Facts hidden in official CCF texts are not presented to the public," he asserted.

"I challenge the CCF leader to repudiate this book or explain it," Mr. Hooke said after reading one passage.

"Read the whole paragraph," Mr. Roper shot back.

"I'll read the whole paragraph, but I'll have to read the whole

ing war veterans who had been civil servants before enlisting, Mr. Hooke said leave of absence had been granted to all civil servants who joined the colors. In their absence, the government has paid superannuation contributions, and as the veterans return they get back their old or better jobs, with salary advances that would have come had they remained in the civil service.

Forty-four men and one veteran of the women's services have come back to the civil service after discharge from the armed forces, Mr. Hooke stated. In addition, 36 men and eight women discharged from the services have been placed in civil service posts. "We intend to keep up our policy of doing everything possible for the war veterans," members were told.

ANSWERS STATEMENTS

Mr. Hooke replied at some length to statements made earlier in the throne debate by J. Percy Page (Ind., Edmonton), to the effect that 1854 orders-in-council had been passed by the government since the last session of the Legislature.

"The great bulk of these were just trivial matters—appointments of commissioners of oaths, increases in civil servants' salaries. These couldn't be passed by the house. Only in rare cases is an order-in-council passed that has not been ratified by previous legislation."

Mr. Hooke declared references to post-war prosperity within the limits of the present monetary system were "just a lot of tommyrot."

He said that in the year before the war, farm debts in Alberta totalled $395,000,000, private urban debts totalled $163,000,000, municipal debts of $65,000,000, and a provincial debt of $177,492,000—a total of $801,104,000.

This figure resulted in a per capita debt of $1,001 before the war, with a national debt of $450 per capita, making a total per capita debt in 1938 of $1,451.

PER CAPITA DEBT

While the war has brought about a reduction in private debt, the tremendous increase in the national debt, standing at $1,400 per capita, has resulted in a $2,000 per capita debt today for Alberta citizens.

"We aim to make the people clear on the situation with which they will be confronted," said Mr. Hooke.

CCF Members Criticize Party's Official Policy

idea... The CCF has failed to realize the supreme importance of friendly co-operation with the Soviet Union."

Later, it was announced at CCF headquarters here that the action of the two members would be considered at a special meeting of the provincial council March 10.

"The position taken by these two men is directly opposed to the policy of the CCF as determined by our membership," said Harvey Wood, provincial chairman of the council.

"They contend that the CCF should abandon its determination to win the next election, and that instead we should enter into a Liberal-Labor coalition as proposed by the LPP."

WON'T STATE PLANS

Asked if they planned to cross the floor of the house, neither Dr. Johnson nor Mr. Richards would comment. There are five CCF anti-coalition members in the legislature.

S. J. Farmer, CCF house leader, said the statement read by Mr. Richards ran "strictly along Communist lines."

"It prescribes the typical Communist tactics designed to discredit the leadership of the CCF."

Mr. Richards told the legislature the CCF party should be in a strategic position to give progressive leadership in a coalition government. "The only alternative might be a government by reaction."

"By insisting upon 'Socialism now' as the only alternative to chaos, we believe the CCF to be unrealistic in the extreme," said the statement. "We are convinced that neither the CCF nor the Canadian people are ready for the responsibilities of Socialism at this time."

The Independent party did not escape unscathed while the provincial secretary passed out brickbats. "One should not criticize the Independent party," he said in a somewhat hushed voice.

"One should speak reverently of the dead."

CRITICIZE LEADERSHIP

"Our criticism is levelled at the official leadership of the CCF. To-day, the CCF finds itself in the position of preaching depression doctrines in a situation entirely new—trying to apply pre-war policies to the post-war world."

Mr. Richards said a request that the CCF executive call a special provincial convention to consider the views of Dr. Johnson and himself had been refused.

Mr. Wood said the two members knew a special meeting of the council had been called for March 10. "If they were sincere in their professed desire to press their view within the ranks of the CCF, they could have waited another nine days. Their actions make clear they have another purpose."

SPEAK FOR SELVES

Mr. Farmer said "the two members speak for themselves only; not for their constituencies or their local CCF organizations."

Mr. Richards and Dr. Johnson later declined to amplify their statement.

Asked whether their position was similar to two Ontario CCF members of the legislature who recently were asked to resign their seats and were charged with having gone into the Labor-Progressive camp, Mr. Richards replied: "The position was not the same at all."

NATIONAL SECRETARY ANSWERS CRITICISM

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—David Lewis, CCF national secretary said in a statement last night the CCF would be stronger and more united when such members of the party as Dr. D. L. Johnson, Brandon, and B. R. Richards, The Pas, members of the Manitoba legislature who yesterday attacked CCF national policies, "find their true political resting place."

"Anyone familiar with the present political situation in Canada will recognize the language of Mr. Johnson and Mr. Richards as exactly the present line of the Canadian Communists as advocated by their party, now called the Labor-Progressive party," Mr. Lewis said. "This line was unanimously rejected by the CCF national convention last December and has also been rejected by every provincial convention from coast to coast."

POLICY IN ELECTION

The CCF would contest the next election independently with the conviction that private enterprise could provide full employment and security for all Canadians after the war.

"Under these circumstances coalition would be a betrayal of the Canadian people and of our principles," he said. The rank and file of the CCF movement has decided against such a betrayal and this is the policy which will be pursued.

"Mr. Johnson and Mr. Richards belong to an infinitesimally small group in the CCF—numbering no more than a few out of 100,000—who are seemingly ready to follow Communist rather than CCF policy. Whether they have been inside the CCF in good faith or had faith I am not prepared to say, but I am certain the CCF will remain stronger and more unified than over when these few find their true political resting place."

TORONTO, March 2.—(CP)—

Criticism of CCF policy by two party members of the Manitoba legislature recalls the recent defection of two CCF members of the Ontario house.

Last fall Nelson Alles, Essex North, and Leslie Hancock, Wellington South, resigned the party on grounds that it refused to co-operate with the Labor-Progressive party. Mr. Alles now sits as an Independent Laborite while Mr. Hancock is Independent Labor Farmer.

VICTORIA, March 2.—(CP)—

Retention of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and its extension north and south was urged yesterday by Louis Le Bourdais (Lib-Coalition-Cariboo) during the budget debate in the British Columbia legislature. The government should retain the railway "at least for the time being" and "extend it from Squamish to North Vancouver on the south and from Quesnel to Prince George on the north," he said.

The Outlook from Yalta

President Roosevelt is enthusiastic over the spirit that prevailed at Yalta and the outlook opened up by the decisions reached there.

He foresees a time not too far away
when the Allied powers can scale down their wartime armament. But he foresees also that for fifty years or so they will have to keep enough land, sea and air power in readiness to squelch any aggressive movement in the present enemy states
—or elsewhere.

Even rigid isolationists will share the hope that armament-reduction can be made in the post-war years on a scale broad enough to ease the strain on the taxpayers. Fortunately there is no reason to suppose this will not be possible. The strong assurance that it can be done is the solidarity of the United States, Russia and Britain. Without that solidarity the hope for less armament and lower taxes would be visionary.

That the Big Three will have to set the pace for the United Nations in imposing law and order upon any country which threatens to disturb the peace is in the logic of circumstances, and directly deducible from the history of the League.
That excellently-planned organization failed to preserve peace because it had not the solid backing of a group of powers strong enough to make its orders law for Mussolini, Tojo and Hitler.

Unless tragedy is to repeat, Russia, the United States and the British Empire will have to see that the new peace organization is alert enough to identify aggression wherever it is hatched, and strong enough to smash it before it grows into a positive menace.

Political Control?

There is a great to-do in the East about an incident in a Montreal CBC broadcasting station when Major-General L. R. La-Fleche, minister of national war services, who is responsible for the operation of the CBC, called the studio by telephone and personally ordered a certain talk cancelled.

It seems that the broadcast had been arranged by the talks department of the CBC. The premier of New Brunswick protested against it on the ground that the subject matter was before a royal commission and that any comment would be mischievous. But officials of the CBC decided to go ahead anyway. At this point General LaFleche stepped in and very properly stopped the nonsense.

And now a loud cry has gone up about political interference.
Of course it was political interference.
Every time government stops any stupid abuse of privilege or authority it is political interference. It is political interference, really, when a judge, appointed by the government, sends a thief to jail.

Politics is the business of the country and it is difficult to see how the political angle can be avoided in any human activity.

There are just two things to be said about this incident:

1. If a minister of the Crown had to interfere in the internal operation of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, it only proves how desperately ridiculous the internal operation of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has become.

2. In view of the fact that General LaFleche's own department is one of the most effective and efficient in government, this one little taste of "political interference" should only whet the public's appetite for more.

$5,000,000 Plus for Parcels

The objective of the nation-wide Red Cross drive will be $10,000,000. Does that seem like a lot of money? Then note the next sentence in the announcement: More than half of this sum will be required to keep the stream of parcels moving to our prisoners of war in German and Jap-held territory.

This item alone from the list of planned expenditures should ensure a quick and full response from the public when the collection campaign opens on Monday next.

Red Cross representatives know the conditions under which our men are living in the enemy prison camps. When they say that something more than $5,000,000 worth of parcels are needed to eke out the supplies which are allowed the prisoners by their captors, and to supplement parcels sent to individual internees by relatives in Canada, no question remains as to either the reality or the extent of the need.

One relevant fact must not be overlooked. The scarcer food and other necessaries become in the enemy countries, and the more these are disorganized by the impact of war, the less able will they be to take proper care of prisoners—even if they have the will to do so. We must make up to our men in the camps whatever shortages result from these factors and also supply the Red Cross with whatever it costs to get the parcels to them.

Sending parcels to our prisoners is of course only one of the wartime services which the Red Cross is rendering. For all its other activities the organization is asking for less than $5,000,000. Considering how numerous and far-flung these activities are the sum looks inadequate rather than sufficient.

With these facts in mind, the public may well take $10,000,000 as being the minimum amount that will enable the Red Cross to operate as it should operate in the circumstances of today. If subscriptions go away beyond that mark they will not —cannot—exceed the needs that exist—
nor the ability of Canadians to help meet these needs.

A Vulnerable Spot

Canadian soldiers report finding well-filled larders in the homes in German villages which they have occupied in their advance.

Apparently these happy conditions in the Rhineland border zone do not prevail generally in the Reich. Otherwise a drastic cut in food rations would not be necessary, and drastic is the proper word to apply to the reduced scale just proclaimed.

Dr. Goebbels seems to take this view of the reduction, for he accompanied the announcement with admonitions which plainly disclose uneasiness as to the reception the new ration scale would receive.
What the propaganda chief very evidently feared was that popular morale would break down at the official admission that the food supply is running dangerously low.

So far as known abroad, this is the first time Germans were ever told on the authority of the Fuehrer that they were facing actual and serious scarcity. In former war winters they fed well on the stolen food of overrun countries. How they will endure the hunger that was inflicted upon the peoples of those states will now be seen. Dr. Goebbels appears to apprehend trouble because the recoil of the war of exploitation has hit them in the stomach.

If March didn't come roaring onto the stage like a bad-natured lion, neither was lamb-like gentleness observable in the manner of its entry. Which apparently leaves everybody free to anticipate its going in whichever character he prefers.
Maybe, since it just breezed in like a country declaring eleventh-hour non-belligerent war against Germany, March will play a neutral role all through.

Of What Use Is Hanging a Man?

Does Capital Punishment Accomplish Any Real Purpose?

By HAROLD L. WEIR

Yesterday morning, shortly after midnight, prison officials led three men up to an improvised scaffold in the basement of the jail at Fort Frances, Ontario, and hanged them by the neck until they were dead.

As happens at all such executions, everyone was nervous and distracted. Everyone hated the job.
The little town of Fort Frances was in a mental and spiritual turmoil.

Women living
close to the jail
had not slept for nights. In the jail itself, the inhabitants and officials were upset. The institution will not recover its discipline and efficiency for weeks.

As the hanging was going on, so one press despatch says, a relative of the woman brutally murdered by these three men stood across the street from the jail with her eyes fixed upon the building. It was her night of vengeance.

Harold L. Weir

In a small house near the jail, two elderly people, the father and mother of one of the hanged men, spent the night in prayer. It was their night of anguish.

These three men, their bodies covered with quicklime, sleep today
in a dishonored plot behind the jail.
Society has made one tremendous gain. These three men will never kill again.

***
This case and this hanging are notable because they made lurid newspaper copy over a period of months.

In the first place, the murder
was unspeakably cruel and vicious.
The robbers, now hanged, tortured an aged woman with burning papers and set her upon a red hot stove in an effort to make her reveal where she had hidden her money.

In the second place, the case came into prominence because of the row raised by Fort Frances people over the fact that the hanging was held in their jail at all.

It seems that the permanent scaffold at Fort Frances jail is on a lawn outside the building and on previous occasions these mortal ceremonies have been attended by large crowds of people. The town held that such spectacles were brutalizing and demoralizing.

The department of justice refused to change the scene of the execution, but the authorities compromised with public opinion by rigging up a death chamber in the jail's basement among the coal bins and vegetable cellars.

***
If anyone ever deserved to be hanged, these three men deserved
it. Their crime was vile and atrocious and inhuman.

And, as I say, there is no possible chance in this life for these men to kill again.

But I should like to ask the question, as I have asked it before:
What did society actually gain by putting these three men or any other men to death?

It is admitted that the execution gratified the hatred of the victim's relatives. But the purpose of the law is not to gratify vengeance.

It is admitted that these three men have been robbed of the capacity to wage any further warfare against society. But that purpose could have been served just as well by confining them in a safe place for life.

There are those who say that anyone would prefer hanging to life imprisonment. Don't believe it. As one who has seen condemned men during the agonized weeks before their march to the scaffold and during their march to the scaffold,
I can assure you that there is nothing more dreadful on this earth than the torment of expectation.

Well, then, what was gained by this gruesome exhibition of the law's might? What was accomplished by it?

***
I am inclined to think that nothing much was gained or accomplished at all.

Proponents of capital punishment
fall back on their chief argument that the death penalty deters others from capital crimes.

I wonder if they realize the enormity of what they say? I wonder if they realize they are giving approval to the proposition that Brown should be hanged for the murders Jones might commit.

I may be wrong, but I feel that it is utterly abhorrent to the principles of any system of justice that one man should be punished for the potential crimes of another.

Moreover, it is a mere hallucination that capital punishment prevents murder.

***

The United States provides useful statistics in this latter respect because throughout that country
there are in operation many methods of dealing with murderers.

There are 28 states which employ electrocution. There are 12 states which hang. There are eight which use lethal gas. There is one which gives a choice between hanging and shooting. There are eight which do not employ capital punishment at all but fix the maximum penalty for murder at life imprisonment.

Taking it all in all, there are just about as many murders per capita in states which employ capital punishment as in those which do not execute for murder. In other words, capital punishment is not perceptibly a deterrent at all.

Minnesota and Virginia, for instance, have roughly the same population. Virginia electrocutes.
Minnesota has capital punishment.
And yet, in one year, Minnesota had only 42 murders while Virginia, holding out the threat of the electric chair, had 317.

Michigan and Massachusetts have about the same number of people. Massachusetts electrocutes and Michigan has life imprisonment. In one year Michigan had 162 murders while Massachusetts had only 58.

Wisconsin and North Carolina are somewhat the same size. North Carolina uses lethal gas. Wisconsin has life imprisonment. In one year Wisconsin had no death penalty, had only 58 murders while North Carolina, with its gas chamber, had 249.

And so it goes. While capital punishment may appear to deter in Massachusetts, it may be said with equal logic to encourage homicide in Virginia and North Carolina.

As a matter of fact, it probably has no appreciable effect on the murder rate at all. Murder is a crime of passion. And passion does not calculate results and effects.

And so disappears the final argument for capital punishment. Is it not time Canadians reconsidered their stand on this bestial and savage practice?

Stolen Jewels Are Examined By Witnesses

Heads in the crowded city police court craned and silence fell over the assembly Thursday afternoon, as hundreds of dollars worth of diamond and sapphire rings, wrist watches and other items of jewelry were examined by witnesses testifying in the case of shopbreaking, preferred against Mike Iwasuk, Pete Shafley and Dorothy M. Monroe, in connection with the robbery from Birks & Sons Jewelry Store, here, of valuables worth more than $2,000.

Twelve witnesses gave evidence during the first day of the preliminary hearing before Magistrate L. R. Jackson. Witnesses included police of Edmonton and Calgary, hotel clerks, a waitress, a taxi-driver and a private citizen.

Tells of Robbery

Sgt. H. (Tiny) Lytle, city officer, told of being called to the scene of the robbery about 5:45 a.m. Feb. 18, and finding a quantity of rings on the sidewalk beneath the broken window.

Constable E. Jones told the court that he had met a man—identified in court as Iwasuk—at the corner of 104 street and Jasper shortly after 4:30 a.m. that day, at which time he spoke to the accused. Iwasuk then walked towards the Cecil hotel.

Clerk of that hotel told of Iwasuk twice coming into the place, the first time to ask for a room, and later, to use the telephone. The accused complained of having "two black eyes", and asking the clerk if he was expected to spend the night on the streets.

Const. John McIntyre stated that he had been on duty about 104 street and 102 avenue, when a patrol car stopped and officers in it acquainted him with the fact that there had been a robbery.

Saw Two Men, Women

Soon after the witness continued, he observed two men and a woman enter the Lincoln hotel. He followed them inside and spoke to one of the accused, Iwasuk. The other man, identified as Shafley, was also there, said the witness, adding that he did not pay any attention to the woman.

Night clerk of the Stratheona hotel, South Edmonton, told the court that the two male accused had registered for a room there. When he, (the witness) went to their room for a drink, he saw the woman there, he said.

A taxi operator recalled having taken three persons—two men and a woman—from the Lincoln hotel to the South Side at 6:11 a.m. that day.

Detective John H. Woodworth, of the Calgary police department, told how he, accompanied by other members of his force, and RCMP officers, met the Edmonton-Calgary train, arrested and handcuffed the two men, and took them to police headquarters.

Opened Suitcase

About two hours after, investigators arrived at a suite in Calgary's east-end, where they found the female accused. Observing a suitcase, officers asked about it. The woman said it was hers, but she had lost the key to it. Producing a key from his own pocket, the detective said, he opened the bag.

Wrapped in copies of an Edmonton newspaper were found six wrist watches, a cigarette box containing some small items of jewelry, a match-box with six diamond rings, another parcel containing four watches.

Taken to police headquarters, the woman was searched by the police matron. Nine more rings had been found hidden on the accused's person. Soon after, another ring dropped from the accused's clothing and was retrieved by the matron. The hearing is continuing.

Robbery Is Linked With Fire Death

CALGARY, March 2.—(CP)—Robbery has been linked with the mystery fire death of Frank Bishop Thomas, 62-year-old pioneer watchmaker of Calgary, on St. Valentine's Day near Brickburn. In city police court yesterday afternoon, Lawrence Ross Barr, 19, of Bowness, was charged formally with the theft of the safe which Thomas had in his cottage. Brickburn and Bowness are west of the city limits.

Although American Marines still fight for every yard of ground, the going is somewhat easier on Iwo Island. Leathernecks are mopping up last resistance on the second airfield and prepare an assault to wipe out resistance on second half of island. Map shows progress of the three Marine divisions and indicates the rocky hills and mountains which still must be scaled under fire from snipers and Jap mortar crews.

Ask Tax Exemption For Co-Operatives

MONCTON, N.B., March 2.—(CP)—The Co-operative Union of Prince Edward Island, representing 13 co-operative and 50 credit unions, urged that incomes of co-operative enterprises should remain tax-exempt, in a brief submitted yesterday at the opening sitting here of the royal commission on taxation of co-operatives.

The brief was presented by Dr. J. T. Croteau, secretary-treasurer of the union, and professor of economics and sociology for St. Dunstan's University and Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown.

The brief, read before the five-man commission under the chairmanship of Mr. Justice Errol M. W. McDougall of Montreal, was largely factual and historical. It outlined the history of the movement in P.E.I. and its present status.

DORÉEN DUTTON, Canadian junior figure skating champion and one of the featured visiting artists on the Ice Fantasy program of the Glenora Club, is an example of how perseverance and determination can overcome handicaps, even of an almost frightening nature.

A needle broken in her knee when she was five years of age, eventually meant a cast for a year and for a considerable time thereafter even ordinary walking seemed a hopeless goal.

At seven, according to her mother Mrs. A. J. Dutton of Drumheller, Doreen was "still uncertain on her feet." Somebody suggested skating as a cure and both mother and daughter agreed that it should be given full credit for correcting the injury.

For her second number of last night's program, Doreen included the solo which helped win the national title at Toronto on Jan. 26, probably the most spectacular part being a combination of spins where the foot movement is very difficult, being chased on every third beat of the music.

The Drumheller girl is the only skater west of Winnipeg to win the national championship and she is the only gold medalist in Alberta. The gold medal is the highest award given by the Canadian Figure Skating Association and Doreen is the seventh to secure it and the fourth to win it on her first attempt.

Miss Dutton, now 19, is a member of the Porcupine Skating Club at Shumacher, Ont., and trained there under Madge Austin, English teacher. Three years ago at Winnipeg, Doreen finished third in the Canadian junior championships. Last year she placed second to Suzanne Thoun of Ottawa, but she took the title in January this year.

LEARNED IN CALIFORNIA
SUNSHINE almost invariably is associated with California and so it came as something of a surprise to learn that two of the four professionals appearing on the Ice Fantasy program of the Glenora Skating Club—Betty Atkinson and Murray Galbraith—were residents of the Golden State before they knew anything whatsoever about skating.

Doreen, 16, youngest member of the quartet, is from New York and Murray from San Francisco.

Betty Atkinson, who, in addition to a popular dancing number, costars with friend husband Charles Hain in a thrilling adagio act later in the evening, learned how to skate in Long Beach—and just over five years ago at that. And, incidentally, she says there are nine rinks within a 30-mile radius of that city.

Betty, former solo dancer with Fred Waring's Praying Mantis, became interested in skating after watching Sonja Henie in a Los Angeles ice show and eventually gave

Last-Place Chicagoans Spoil New Yorkers' Chances to Overtake Boston

Rangers' Playoff Hopes Jolted Again

Hawks Take 4 Goal Lead 2nd Period

NEW YORK, March 2.—(AP)—Chicago's last-place Black Hawks virtually blacked out New York Rangers' hopes of attaining the National Hockey League playoffs Thursday night when they trounced the New Yorkers, 5-3, before 12,294 fans. The defeat left New York a point behind the fourth-place Boston Bruins in the standings.

Boston has played two less games than the Rangers, who have six to go, all but one against the top three teams in the league. The Black Hawks, three points farther down, also have six games left.

Chicago broke loose at the start of the second frame, scored three goals in less than 3½ minutes and added a fourth half-way through the period. Then they subsided into mainly defensive hockey until Pete Horek scored late in the third period.

Horek and Butch McDonald each scored twice and Bill Mosienko once for the Hawks. Ott Heller scored twice for Rangers during the second period and Alton Jones in the final session.

It was Chicago's second victory over New York in nine encounters this season. Rangers started to fight back when they found themselves four goals behind and reduced the Hawk lead to a single goal after five minutes of the third period. After that the Hawk defence tightened.

Army, Navy Pats Cop First Of City Basketball Series

ARMY and Navy Pats, Edmonton's hopes in the western Canada girls' basketball playdowns, turned in one of their best performances of the season at NWAC gym last night to turn back University 58-40 in the first game of the best of three semi-final in the city loop playoffs.

The Pats, led by Laura Scott with 18 points, played a well organized game throughout and had the Varsity students under control most of the time. They out-classed the opposition in every quarter except the third, when the losers matched basket for basket with them, and they gave the impression they will be strong opposition for the best in Western Canada.

First step on the playoff trail will be to Calgary on March 10 when they open a home and home series with the south cagers. Second game will be at the Nonsuch drill hall here Saturday March 17. The Pats, then playing as the Starlets, lost out to the Calgary club last spring in the intermediate playoffs and will be out to turn the tables on the south team, in addition to going after the Alberta title.

Couch Clare Hollingsworth has his team in top form and will also have the additional strength of two other former Grads, Noel Robertson and Etta Dann.

Connie Strachan and Margaret Colville also stood out on the offensive for the Pats, collecting 14 and 12 points respectively, while Margaret Hembling played an outstanding game at a guard position. June Coughrove with 16 points and Vera Hov with 13 were the top scorers for coach Tommy McClocklin's Varsity team.

The winners took a 12-6 lead in the first quarter and then came through with a neat 18 in the second while holding the losers to eight to grab a comfortable 30-14 margin at half time. The Pats slowed down slightly in the third quarter and allowed Varsity to cut to 16, the same number as the winners, but out-scored the students 12-10 in the last to win out easily.

LINEUPS
Army and Navy Pats: Spence (B), Laura Scott (B), Margaret Hembling (F), Connie Strachan (F), Margaret Colville (F), Denise Callawa, Skitch (F), Schwartz, Total, 38.

'Peg Army 10-6
WINNIPEG, March 2.—(CP)—Winnipeg Army upset the Winnipeg RCAF Bombers 10-6 in the Manitoba Inter-Services Senior Hockey League last night with L-Cpl. Jim McFadden figuring in six of the Soldiers' goals.

The Canadian ski school, which trains a number of instructors in the Laurentians each year, features snow-plows, stem turns and related manoeuvres as fundamentals of ski training, working from these up to more advanced things such as side-slipping and parallel christians.

Loosli claims to be able to teach a new skier to run a normally difficult hill in three days. His method starts a novice immediately into parallel christians, skipping such things as snow-plow and stem as unessential to the business of getting down a hill quickly and gracefully.

The CSS school of thought claims his method is incomplete and unsound for anything but packed-snow conditions.

Gadner said at St. Jovite that he would be quite willing to race against Loosli, and would let Loosli set the lead and would be willing to race in a neutral area. At Quebec, Loosli said he was interested, but could not give a definite answer immediately.

Rea Sets Record At Inter-Faculty Swimming Meet

One university inter-faculty swimming record went by the boards at the swim gala held at the YWCA Thursday night when Hugh Rea, Engineers, knocked out five of a second off the old time in the 40 yards free style event. Most outstanding effort of the night, however, was in the girls' competitions and was turned in by Alice Stewart-Irvine who won all six events.

Engineers took the men's meet with 34 points while Arts-Ag-Science was second with 19 and Med-Dents were third with eight. In the girls' competitions, Household Economics won out with 35, Education was second with 17 and Arts and Science collected five points.

Points were awarded on a five for first, three for second and one for third basis.

Exhibitions of swimming were put on by Daria Shoemaker, Doug Swall and George Valpy.

NEW YORK, March 2.—(BUP)—Wealthy Charles Schuster of Los Angeles stood in the Aldorf-Astoria lobby, gazing pop-eyed at the thin, blond, bespectacled stranger. The blood mounted to Schuster's face, and he savagely pulled back his right fist. But he didn't let it go.

Instead, he ground through his teeth: "Get out of here, you filthy so-and-so, or I'll break every bone in your body."

The stranger had said to Schuster, "I understand this fight is in the bag. Now—" that was as far as he got. He departed in haste.

Willie Joyce Ike Williams

Schuster—a middle-aged, scholarly-looking man of medium height—owns the chain of "Jim Dandy" food markets in southern California. He also owns the contract of Willie Joyce, negro lightweight contender, who fights Ike Williams at Madison Square Garden tonight. He came to New York this week to watch Joyce in the most important bout of his career.

Schuster's encounter with the blond stranger occurred Wednesday afternoon. He was still fuming last night. He said "I should have hit that fellow. But he was wearing glasses, and besides I didn't like to make a scene in a nice hotel."

DIDN'T WAIT TO HEAR

"No, I have no idea who he was. He introduced himself in the lobby, mumbling some name, and claiming to be a friend of someone I know. He asked about business conditions in California."

Then he asked about the fight. Who did I think would win? I told him I didn't know, but hoped Joyce would. He smiled at that, then edged closer and started that in-the-bag business. I didn't know who he meant it was in the bag for. I didn't wait to hear. The very idea of him casting insinuations. A tough, toss-up fight like this one made me furious. I'm sorry now I didn't strike him."

Although a fight fan for years, the food market magnate is a newcomer to the boxing business. He bought Joyce's contract last July. He admired the Gary, Ind., negro for his gameness in two of his four bouts with Henry Armstrong. In each of those particular two bouts, Joyce suffered a broken jaw, but finished the fight despite the pain. Schuster hired Lou Gross, well known Chicago trainer, to handle the fighter for him. Under the Schuster-Gross management, the 25-year-old negro has become a prominent contender.

MAY TRY FOR TITLE BOUT

If Joyce beats young Williams of Trenton, N.J., in their 12-round bout tonight, he will try to replace Williams as challenger for Juan Zurlita's NBA lightweight crown in the title fight scheduled for Philadelphia, on April 9. Joyce and Williams met twice before at Philadelphia, each winning a decision. Hence tonight's third tilt is a "rubber match."

Williams is favored at 8-5 to win tonight in the heaviest fight betting of the year. Fans of Philadelphia, New Jersey and New York are busily backing their opinions, and the bookies are delighted.

Schuster says, "I'm not interested in the betting; but I can't understand why Williams is favored over Joyce when each has won a previous bout. I'm not trying to make any money out of boxing. I worked hard for 25 years at my business, and did well. I felt that it was time I relaxed and had a hobby. Boxing is my hobby now. So far, I have found it an excellent, clean sport. And the boxing people with whom I've had dealings have been strictly honest. That's why I was so surprised and angry at that stranger in the lobby. I'm convinced I should have hit him."

CANADIAN SPORTSHOTS

By FRED KERNER

TORONTO, March 2.—(CP)—Jimmy McLarnin, whose name has gone down in the annals of Canadian boxing, is quite convinced that had it not been for his early interest in boxing he might have wound up as a "down-and-out" and a detriment to society. . . The former champion believes that the main weapon to be used in combatting juvenile delinquency is plenty of activity.

Jimmy was in Vancouver recently—where there are more organized boxing clubs than in any other city in Canada—and was highly pleased at the number of youngsters "left off the streets" through membership in the clubs. His idea is that if you can get a youngster interested in some form of physical activity before he reaches 15, he's off to a good start in becoming a better citizen.

Commenting on McLarnin's theory on delinquency prevention, Carl (Vancouver News-Herald) Robertson suggests that youngsters under the age of 15 should be allowed in free to sport events. Carl's thought may be well intended but it doesn't seem too feasible. Can you imagine the throng of Annie Oakleys at the Montreal forum or Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens on hockey night?

DON'T LOOK NOW

First it was Edmonton Canadians, then an all-star aggregation from the coast, and now there's word that Moose Jaw Canucks is the team that will whip the touted Toronto St. Michael's juniors — if and when they meet in the Memorial Cup finals.

The prognostication came from none other than Art Chapman, the former New York American centre ice smoothie who is scouting for Eddie Shore's Buffalo Bisons. Art told Dave (Regina Leader-Post) Dryburgh that the Canucks are tops and needn't worry about St. Mike's, or any other amateur club for that matter.

Added to which Art says: "Canucks will not only beat them (St. Mike's), but they'll do it easily."

Port Arthur Navy Beats West Ends

PORT ARTHUR, March 2.—(CP)—Port Arthur HMCS Griffin defeated Port Arthur West End Bruins 7-5 in overtime last night to take a game lead in the best-of-five Thunder Bay junior hockey championship series.

The West End Bruins, however, will represent Thunder Bay in the Memorial Cup play-offs by virtue of a victory in the best-of-three series against Port Arthur Flyers, last year's champions. The sailors are not permitted to participate in provincial play-offs.

Mark Twain would have enjoyed meeting Schuster. Twain wrote "The Innocents Abroad."

Haegg and Lidman Arrive In States For Indoor Meets

NEW YORK, March 2.—(AP)—Swedish track stars Gunder Haegg and Haakon Lidman arrived in the United States Thursday after a voyage from Great Britain of more than three weeks.

Originally scheduled to fly here, the pair was shunted to boats when plane passage was unavailable. They left Sweden Feb. 1.

Both are scheduled to appear in this week-end's indoor meet, Haegg being carded against four U. S. milers in the Louis S. Zamperini invitational mile. Lidman is booked for a hurdle exhibition.

Other indoor meets still on the card are the Knights of Columbus meet at Madison Square Garden on March 10, the Chicago relays on March 11 and the Cleveland Knights of Columbus games on March 24. Haegg went undefeated in eight races against the United States' best in the summer of 1943. He earned $135,000 for the army air forces in that series.

Thinks He Can Hit .300

Cooney Wants Utility Job With Big League Ball Club

SARASOTA, Fla., March 2.—(AP)—Wanted: Big league utility job by 43-year-old baseball player who thinks he still can hit close to a .300 pace. Any manager interested can get in touch with Johnny Cooney at his Sarasota home.

The veteran jack-of-all-trades is a free agent. He finished out last season with Toronto of the international league after being released during the summer by New York Yankees.

Cooney underwent a shoulder operation last fall, and now says he's in "the best shape I've been in for a couple of years. I've been having trouble with my arm, but I can throw better now after the operation."

"I haven't had any offers yet," he confided. "But I am hopeful that some big league club can use me. I believe I could play in half the games, or maybe as many as 100 games. I think I can hit about as well as I ever did."

If Cooney can hit as well as ever, it means that he can walloop the ball for almost a .300 average. It has been only a season or so since he was in the battle for the national league batting championship.

After pitching for several years for Boston Braves, Cooney developed arm trouble and became a utility man and coach.

Two Rutherford Hockey Teams In School Finals

Two Rutherford school teams have reached the final round for their respective divisions in Edmonton schools hockey. Both are coached by Mel Allen, a member of the teaching staff.

The intermediate (grades 7 and 8) will meet North Edmonton for one championship, while the elementary (grades 5 and 6) team will clash with Calder also for city honors.

Intermediates scored a total of 45 goals as compared to three registered against them and in reaching the final disposed of Rithchie, Queen Alex, Garneau and McKay Ave.

The elementary team beat Rithchie 9-2, Queen Alex 7-3, Forest Heights 14-3 and Queens Ave. 9-6, losing only one game during the year—a 3-4 decision to Queen's Ave.

Referee Is Tough: Must Play Hockey

LLOYDMINSTER: The hockey club overcame their old rivals, the Vermilion Bombers Tuesday night when they carried off a big slice of a 5-6 count. Referee Bob White made it clear to the boys that they were to play hockey and not shinney when he sent McLean of the home club to the ice box at 1:44 in the opening stanza.

A Vermilion defence player, Munce, received a deep laceration on the proboscis and was taken to the local doctor for necessary repairs. ### Says Dom.-Prov. Talks Necessary At Early Date

A Dominion-provincial conference should be called in Canada at an early date, it was stated in the Legislature Thursday by H. B. Macdonald, (Ind., Calgary), when he rose to speak in the throne speech debate.

Mr. Macdonald declared "what we need in this nation now is a spirit of determination and willingness to work together as our men have fought and died together."

It is most essential to have the closest possible co-operation between provincial and the Dominion governments in rehabilitation and many other problems, the Calgary member pointed out. "Such a measure of unity and understanding can only be arrived at through a Dominion-provincial conference," he said.

COMMON SOLUTION

"If and when such a conference is assembled, the country will hope and expect that it will be marked by a sincere desire of all taking part to find a common solution to

Mayor of Elk Point Operates Chicken Ranch and Feed Mill

ELK POINT: Of all the industries in this province from which Alberta's small town mayors are drawn, probably none is so largely represented as agriculture. Mayor Lawrence W. Sumpton of Elk Point is no exception.

The mayor owns and operates an extensive chicken ranch and feed and chop mill near Elk Point. His wife, a teacher at the Elk Point school, is an able assistant on her husband's ranch. Most of the mayor's activities have been connected with the great outdoors. He was a member of the local baseball team from 1928 to 1933 and refereed district hockey games until the war broke up the club.

He is an enthusiastic supporter of the Red Cross, and other activities designed to assist the servicemen. The mayor is treasurer of the local branch.

In addition, he is secretary-treasurer of the Elk Point Golf Club and is an ardent curler.

BORN IN ONTARIO

Mayor Sumpton was born at Port Elgin, Ont., in August, 1901, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Sumpton. He received his education in Ontario and Saskatchewan and was married at Moose Jaw in 1928 to Miss Nellie B. Fykes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fykes of that city. The ceremony was held at St. Andrew's Church. The Rev. J. A. McKeigan was the officiating clergyman.

The mayor started his business career at Belbeck, Sask. Since 1927 he has been a grain buyer with McCabe Bros. grain company at Elk Point. He attends the United Church and is a member of the board of that organization.

Paratrooper Not Anxious To Stay Till End Of War

BRUCE: Sgt. Jack Parfett, who was awarded the American Silver Star at Cassino, doesn't want to remain in Canada for the rest of the war. The paratrooper veteran of the Sicily and Italy campaigns arrived home this week. He was greeted by his parents, three sisters, Ruth, Peggy and Shirley, and three brothers, Bill, Buddy and Donny. Another brother, James, is serving in Italy.

A welcome home party will be held in honor of Sgt. Parfett Friday night at the community hall.

Prizes at a CGIT bingo party were donated by F. Palamarchuk, F. Williams, L. Bodensky, Miss L. Holter and Fui Pon. Miss J. Haight won a doll. Proceeds were $21.

Urge Construction Memorial Building

LLOYDMINSTER: That a citizens' memorial committee be set up, representative of all organizations, to gather necessary data and to obtain plans at the earliest possible date, and that the Town Council be requested to finance the necessary minimum expense for the plans, was urged in a resolution passed by delegates from various organizations at a meeting here.

The delegates, representing the Canadian Legion, the Legion's auxiliary, town council, board of trade, Elks lodge, Rotary club, Kinsmen club, Women's Co-op Guild, Orange Lodge and the Exhibition Association were discussing construction of a memorial hall in Lloydminster.

all differences of opinions and policies," said Mr. Macdonald. "All problems concerning the welfare of different parts of this wide Dominion should be frankly discussed."

From the Atlantic to the Pacific, all Canadians know very well that a permanent agreement between the national government and the provinces would go a tremendous way toward promoting unity, and eliminating costly duplication of many services, the independent member stated. Such an agreement should more clearly define the duties of the respective governments in meeting "our common difficulties and problems" on a sound and business-like basis, he added.

The present time is most opportune for refunding of the provincial debt, Mr. Macdonald asserted.

He said: "I am glad to see that the government is establishing a department of economic affairs. This new department should go a long way towards encouraging the expansion and development of our natural resources."

GREAT RESOURCES

"We have great resources, but we must do our part to develop them. No magic wand will wave and find jobs for those returning from the war, and those left jobless by the closing down of our war plants.

"We must see to it that our great natural wealth, as a province, is developed, and industries built up to provide employment. At present, the manufacturing and industrial life of Canada is pretty well centred in the eastern provinces. We should try and get industry built up here."

"Markets and trade are largely matters for Dominion government action," Mr. Macdonald said. "That is further reason why we should have a Dominion-provincial conference at the earliest possible date."

REFUNDING SUPPORT

On the refunding question, the Calgary member said he was sure the government would have the support of all sections of the house "in this effort to re-establish the credit of our province."

"With the matter of default on Alberta bonds disposed of, the way will be open for bringing into the province new means to develop resources and generally build up the agricultural and industrial life, whereby more jobs will be available to our people."

Three United States Navy Vessels Lost In Pacific Waters

WASHINGTON, March 2.—(AP)—The United States Navy yesterday announced the loss of three naval vessels, including the small salvage vessel "Extractor," which was sunk by a United States submarine as a result of mistaken identity. Six men are missing.

The other ships lost were the 14,250-ton cargo ship Serpens, manned by Coast Guard personnel, and a large infantry landing craft.

The Serpens was carrying ammunition and all personnel aboard, approximately 200 officers and men were lost.

The LCI was sunk in the central Pacific with a loss of two dead and one missing. The normal complement was about 25.

U.S. War Production Must Go "All Out"

NEW YORK, March 2.—(AP)—William L. Ball said yesterday United States war production must continue full speed for "big military landings" in the Pacific and land fighting on perhaps the European scale. The army and air forces will have to be "pretty completely re-equipped" to fight Japan, the vice-chairman of the War Production Board said in an address to a Rotary club luncheon.

Spectacular Performances Ice Fantasy Thrills Audience of 5,000

Breathtakingly polished performances and brilliant costumes and lighting combine to make the Glenora Skating Club's 1945 "Ice Fantasy" one of the most spectacular shows ever staged in Edmonton. An opening night audience of almost 5,000 packed the Edmonton Arena Thursday and demonstrated their approval with enthusiastic applause and cheers.

Club skaters, ranging in age from 4 to 57 years, were smooth and well rehearsed in their group skating and star club performers displayed skill and grace which alone would have made the show worth seeing.

To the array of local talent is added the brilliant skating of four professional performers and the Canadian ladies' junior champion, Miss Dorren Dutton.

Murray Galbraith, Winnipeg-born star performer in the "Ice Follies," put on a show of precision and personality that held the crowd spellbound. This starchy performer was quickly tagged "The Build," and female fans screamed and sighed when he glided onto the ice.

Members of Veterans Guard Receive Special 30-Day Course at Armory

Veterans of at least one war, and in many cases, two or three wars, were assembling in Edmonton this week under a new plan whereby members of the Veterans' Guard of Canada, two companies at a time, will undergo a 30-day course in weapons, drill and guard training at the Prince of Wales Armory.

Heretofore posted to Moose Jaw for the course, the "old sweat" will henceforth come here, and it is anticipated that from now on, there will always be courses underway here at all times.

The object of the course was outlined by Lt. Col. R. Walter Hale, MC, ED, area commander, when he told the new arrivals of the type of work involved, and urged them to train hard during duty hours. "We'll assist you all we can to enjoy your leisure hours," he promised.

FIRST TWO GROUPS

The first two groups to arrive here are No. 30 Company, under command of Maj. James R. Thompson of Toronto, who succeeded Col. J. M. Taylor of Lethbridge, now a guard director at Ottawa; and No. 37 Company, under command of Maj. Fred J. Chapple, MC, DCM, Toronto. No. 30 Company is comprised mainly of Northern Alberta men, while the No. 37 organization consists of Manitoba men, mostly from Winnipeg. Each company has six platoons and a headquarters platoon, and they are completely self-supporting, as regards messing, administration and organization. Each company has its own pipe band.

Auxiliary Names Officers For Year

Ladies Auxiliary of the Polish Veterans Association sponsored a successful tea and bingo in the Polish Hall, 108 avenue and 98 street recently to raise funds for continuing the work of relief for Polish war victims.

Sum of $50 was raised, the goal set for the particular function. Committee members elected for 1945 were:

President, Mrs. M. Stark; vice-president, Mrs. J. Hauptman; secretary, Mrs. L. Chizanski; treasurer, Mrs. M. Berzowski; executive members, Mrs. M. Ruppel, Mrs. K. Trybuch and Mrs. J. Kizior.

Corps Association Will Meet Tuesday

The monthly meeting of the Canadian Corps Association will be held at the Masonic Temple at 8 p.m. next Tuesday. H. A. Dyde, former military secretary to the minister of national defence and a past-president of the association will be the speaker and will tell of his various trips overseas during the present war.

An invitation to veterans of the present war to attend, was issued by A. M. Adamson, president, who said he proposed to introduce a motion urging admission to the association of veterans of the present war.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION
On early raids over Japan orders have been given to spare the Emperor's palace. Do you think that this should be done?

THE ANSWERS
G. McLEAN, warehouseman: I certainly think that Hirohito's palace should be given the works. There's nothing makes a god look so mortal as to die.

W. RICHARDSON, auto mechanic: I am in favor of hitting all the higher ups on the enemy side the hardest of all. It's all very well to say that an emperor is only a figurehead but when a figurehead makes war his main business he should certainly not escape.

E. WASHINGTON, trucker: I certainly see no reason why the Japanese emperor should be spared. To my way of thinking the bigger they are the harder they should fall. To the fanatical and brutal Japs sparing of the god-emperor by our military indicates only one thing, that we are afraid of their leader.

Housing Remains Scarce in the City

There doesn't seem to be any easing of the housing accommodation situation in Edmonton, according to Mrs. M. E. Fielding, director of the Edmonton Emergency Accommodation Bureau.

Figures for February, released Friday by Mrs. Fielding, revealed that during the 24 days of the month 741 adults and children were registered. Of these 340 adults and 362 children were placed. All of the 160 transient seeking rooms were accommodated, Mrs. Fielding said.

The largest proportion of registrants during the month were Canadian civilians. This group numbered 357. In addition there were 127 Americans, 64 returned men and 193 Canadian service men.

Plan to Extend Maternity Care

Alberta free maternity hospitalization legislation will be extended to cover residents of this province in cases where it is more convenient for patients to enter hospitals in other provinces, according to terms of a bill introduced into the Legislature.

The new regulation is designed to apply in cases where the nearest Alberta hospital is a long distance away, but one is close at hand in a neighboring province.

This situation has arisen in the north and northwest sections of Alberta, where British Columbia hospitals are readily accessible but the nearest Alberta institution is many miles away and in some cases not connected by road to butting settlements of this province.

The legislation will give the government power to make agreements with hospitals outside of Alberta, in order that residents of distant sections may take advantage of free maternity provisions applicable elsewhere in this province.

Working Conditions To Be Discussed

City commissioners will meet with executive members of the Edmonton Civic Employees' Federation in the near future to discuss working conditions for 1945.

The employees are asking that the city increase by a unit and a half its contribution to the pension fund, and also certain modifications in connection with holiday periods in relation to length of service.

The Hungarian City of Debrecen was known as "Calvinist Rome" during the Lutheran Reformation.

More than four hundred music-lovers attended the first concert of the University of Alberta's mixed chorus held in Convocation Hall Thursday night. A program of both popular and classical choral numbers was presented by the choir consisting of 75 voices under the direction of Gordon Clark.

The choir began by singing "Now Let All the Heavens Adore Thee," from the cantata "Solemnity Awake" by J. S. Bach, which they followed with Mendelssohn's "Farewell to the Forest," and Beethoven's "Overture to the Ninth Symphony." The choir then sang "The Star of Bethlehem" by J. S. Bach, and "The Star of Bethlehem" by J. S. Bach, and "The Star of Bethlehem" by J. S. Bach.

The second part began with "Come, Blessed Death," by Bach with soloists Ruth Drew and Stan Timmer. Then the choir as a whole presented "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves," by Purcell, and "The Star of Bethlehem" by J. S. Bach, and "The Star of Bethlehem" by J. S. Bach.

One of the main features of the program was a brass quartet consisting of W. S. Simpson and L. L. Simpson, trumpets; D. Culham, euphonium; and J. O'Hara, euphonium. Their selections were "Hymn to Music" by Dudley Buck, and "Quartet by Wagner." The choir then sang "Service by Cadman, Mother I Will Have a Husband, by Vautour, and "Shortnin' Bread," by Wolfe.

The last part of the program included "Autumn" by Grotchenhoff, and "The Siesla," by Noble Cain. John Raragovsky, tenor, then sang "My Love," by Stephen Foster. The entertainment was concluded with "This is the Greatness," by D. Bor-nansky.

CWAC Girls Hear Address

One hundred and thirty members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps gathered in their recreation hall at Prince of Wales Army, Wednesday night, on a weekly "In-Night" program. The evening's fun was highlighted by an address from Major Mary R. Barker, district CWAC officer MD No. 13, recently posted to Calgary from London, Ont. Major Barker, previous to her enlistment in CWAC in October 1941, was on the faculty of the University of Western Ontario. In June, 1940, she was sent overseas and on her return to Canada resumed her duties in Military District No. 1, Ontario.

Asked how she liked Western Canada she enthusiastically remarked, "I find the people very hospitable and their friendliness is always so sincere." Major Barker just can't imagine "doing anything but an army job at this time."

Capt. Gerda M. Forsland, officer commanding No. 15 Admin. Unit, CWAC, Edmonton, assisted Major Barker in presenting prizes to winners of a recent ping pong competition, winners being Pte. Daphne Jacques, Pte. Cary Mott and L. Col. Nora Segar, all Alberta girls. S. Sgt. M. E. McConghy conducted a quiz contest based on standing orders of the CWAC unit. Prizes of cigarettes and chocolate bars were awarded the winners in the contest. Lt. V. Merle Tushingham, Lt. Madge Williams and Lt. Dorothy Taylor supervised the serving of refreshments at the close of the evening.

100 Airwomen at Edmonton Station, NWAC, Pack Parachutes, Check Safety Equipment

By HOPE MORRITT

Any more man would rather see him to walk into one of the barracks at the RCAF Edmonton station. He would be greeted by a dignified line filled with dainty, slender, lingerie fresh and delicate in hold, and pyjamas in pastel shades whose very stitching tells tales of a feminine touch.

"Girls will be girls," according to the old proverb, and even so, the blue femininity does not die. One hundred young mademoiselles reside at the Edmonton station, Northwest Air Command. They work alongside the men, keeping tabs of airplanes anywhere from Alberta to the Arctic circle, pack parachutes and check safety equipment, send communications by telephone, teletype and Morse.

A new department at the command, "Search and Rescue," which is interested in the welfare of the lost flier, has two women on its strength, L.A.W. Betty McNutt of Truro, N.S., and L.A.W. Rita Legere of Campbellton, N.B.

The girls pack and repair some of the parachutes, make stretchers and cargo bags which contain food and medical supplies, stich harnesses, press, fold and stich identification streamers which are orange in winter and white in summer. In an interview Wednesday, the girls said they enjoyed their work immensely in this new branch at the station. The men working with them gave them warm praise and complimented them upon their "accuracy," which is a great demand for this type of work.

IN CHARGE OF AIRWOMEN.—SO. Alta Magoon, RCAF, who is the only WD officer at the Edmonton station, Northwest Air Command. She is in charge of approximately 100 girls at the station, and formerly, when the NWAC was known as the North-west Staging Route, here more than a year ago. Miss Magoon was the sole representative of her sex included in the RCAF personnel.

The transportation section takes care of all the girls' travel for passengers and cargo. There are fitted for parachutes. The girls also check for defects in safety equipment which goes into planes. Working with the utmost precision and care both telephones and teletype, eight airwomen working shifts provide at the Flying Control Airways Centre.

Together with a number of RCAF men they are responsible for the safety of every plane TCA, CPA, RCAF, USAAF, civilian and otherwise, within the boundaries of the province and north to the Arctic. They are constantly in contact with the various stations and airports, and when a plane does not get to its destination they call for search proceedings.

Forty girls work in the signals section, where also a stiff vigilance is kept from station to station. The girls do radio telephone work handle Morse circuits from point to point, use the tele. for the mail, administrative and operational traffic passed by the change and work the wheelchair for ordinary city and out of town calls.

All the girls are under the able supervision of SO. Alta Magoon, daughter of Mrs. H. A. Magoon and the late Mr. Magoon of Edmonton. Miss Magoon, small dark and full of vitality, is enthusiastic about the 100 airwomen on her charge. There are two flight airwomen on the station, L.A.W. Joan King and F.L. Sgt. M. Harper.

There are two barracks buildings for the WDs as they are families called, one which has two and four dormitory bunks to a room and another with rooms and a dormitory. The girls have a room, shower, etc., and do their own washing and ironing.

An outdoor swimming pool, where there is no ice, is for the girls' use. The pool is heated and is a very nice place to go. The girls also have a gymnasium and a dance hall. The girls also have a library and a reading room. The girls also have a kitchen and a dining hall. The girls also have a bathroom and a shower.

Another feature of the station is the fact that the girls are allowed to have their own money. The girls are allowed to have their own money and to spend it as they see fit. The girls are also allowed to have their own clothes and to wear them as they see fit.

The Ven. Archdeacon H. M. Macdonald, who is the spiritual leader of the girls, is a very kind and understanding man. He is always ready to listen to the girls' problems and to help them in any way he can.

Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, who is the mother of the girls, is a very kind and understanding woman. She is always ready to listen to the girls' problems and to help them in any way she can.

Mrs. A. W. Kennedy, who is the mother of the girls, is a very kind and understanding woman. She is always ready to listen to the girls' problems and to help them in any way she can.

ON GUARD against accidents

Accidents—preventable accidents resulting from carelessness—take a fearful toll in death and injuries each year. Be on guard against carelessness at all times... that's the first step in accident prevention. It is equally important, however, to know how to render first aid when accidents do happen—for first aid, rendered competently and quickly, is often the means of saving a precious life.

That is why the work of the St. John Ambulance Association is of vital importance to every Canadian. Through this Association facilities are made available to everyone to learn the secrets of first aid and a sound knowledge of first aid has been imparted to hundreds of thousands of Canadians by the St. John Ambulance Association.

Decide now to learn first aid. For full details of our course with your local St. John Ambulance Association branch or write to St. John Ambulance Association, 101 Chapel Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

"Municipal Party" Organized in B.C.

VANCOUVER, March 2.—(CP)—Organization of a new provincial political party—the "Municipal Party"—is under way, Mayor J. W. Cornett of Vancouver disclosed yesterday on his return from a two-day visit to Victoria.

The mayor, a convert to the new group, said he returned firmly convinced that B.C. cities and municipalities never will receive a "square deal" from a provincial government unless there are more "municipally-minded" members in the Legislature.

"Municipalities have got to see that there are candidates in the field who, regardless of political stripe, will subscribe to the idea of junior government getting larger grants for education and hospitalization," said Mayor Cornett.

The property owners must be relieved of the increasingly heavy tax burden or cities and municipalities must inevitably go under."

Mayor Cornett said a third of Vancouver's annual revenues are absorbed by school costs.

The mayor visualized inauguration of a "Municipal Party" under auspices of the Union of B.C. Municipalities.

Newspaper Claims Place For France As "Great Power"

PARIS, March 2.—(Reuters)—Emile Borel, editor of the independent newspaper "L'Ordre," said in an editorial yesterday that the "pro-creative tone Prime Minister Churchill adopts when speaking of France" is absolutely unsupportable to the ears of sincere French friends of his country. "There are not three great powers—there are four. And our country is amongst them. If that is not understood in London so much the worse for us, but also so much for the British."

Political Unrest In Canada Noted By London Times

LONDON, March 2.—(CP)—The Times of London warned yesterday that the present atmosphere of political uncertainty in Canada could lead to a weakening of the Dominion's position at the forthcoming world security conference in San Francisco. It said an election on the constitution issue "could hardly fail to follow racial lines of division and by weakening the Dominion's unity impair its authority in the forthcoming international discussions."

Seaman Charged As Woman's Killer

OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss., March 2.—(AP)—L. K. McIntosh, Jackson county prosecuting attorney, announced yesterday Edward Sharp Bosarge, 22, a merchant seaman, was charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Lillian Pierce, 22, of Denver, Colo., in a hotel here Wednesday. Police said Bosarge signed a statement declaring the woman was struck twice with a hammer while they were arguing over who would take a bath first.

Request Bombing Of Berlin Stopped

LONDON, March 2.—(Reuters)—A telegram urging cessation of bombing of Berlin "in view of the large number of refugees in the city" and because "a dangerous precedent is being created in the event of future war," was sent yesterday to Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt. Signers were Vera Brittain, novelist, Dr. A. D. Holden, a Congressionalist minister, and Prof. H. S. Jevons.

Nazis Withdrawing Over Rhine River

FIELD MARSHAL MONTGOMERY'S HEADQUARTERS, March 2.—(AP)—British planes spotted more than 300 German road vehicles running with lights on last night in a movement toward or across the Rhine in the Krefeld area, a sign of a German withdrawal across the stream.

Farm Loans Act Now in Operation

OTTAWA, March 2.—(CP)—Finance Minister Isley announced today that the Farm Improvement Loans Act, passed at the last session of parliament, has been brought into operation.

The act enables farmers to obtain loans up to $3,000 from their local banks for a wide variety of purposes and extending over terms up to 10 years at five per cent simple interest. The banks receive a guarantee from the government against loss to the extent of 10 per cent. The amount loaned and the maximum amount they can loan is $250,000,000. The act covers a three-year period.

All kinds of farm improvements from new machinery to a complete new home, hired man's house or barn can be financed under the act.

Wife of Poland's London Premier Reported Arrested

LONDON, March 2.—(Reuters)—Foreign Secretary Edey informed the House of Commons yesterday that the Polish ambassador had advised him of the reported arrest in Poland of Mme. Arlezewska, wife of the Polish premier in London. Other persons also were reported arrested.

"We shall take this matter up with the Soviet government and at the same time inform our American friends," Mr. Edey said.

The press associations correspondent added that Polish official circles stated that the arrest was carried out by the Russian political police.
